

MBTI® Profile COLLEGE EDITION

This profile presents your results on the MBTI® assessment and reports which of sixteen different personality types best describes you, based on the responses you gave when taking the assessment. Your personality type is made up of your preferences in four separate categories that together describe how you typically go about noticing and thinking about things and interacting with people and the world. As shown below, each category is composed of two opposite preferences.

THE FOUR CATEGORIES OF PERSONALITY TYPE

THE PREFERENCES

Where you focus your attention	E Extraversion	or	I Introversion
The way you take in information	S Sensing	or	N Intuition
The way you make decisions	T Thinking	or	F Feeling
How you deal with the world	J Judging	or	P Perceiving

The four letters denoting your preferences—E or I, S or N, T or F, and J or P—combine to form a code for your personality type. Based on your responses, your personality type code is ENFP.

ENFP

Where you focus your attention	E Extraversion Focusing attention on the outer world of people and things	I Introversion Focusing attention on the inner world of ideas and impressions
The way you take in information	S Sensing Taking in information through the five senses, with a focus on the here and now	N Intuition Taking in information by seeing patterns and the big picture, with a focus on future possibilities
The way you make decisions	T Thinking Making decisions mostly on the basis of logic and objective analysis	F Feeling Making decisions mostly on the basis of values and subjective, people-centered concerns
How you deal with the world	J Judging Taking a planned and organized approach to life, liking things to be settled	P Perceiving Taking a flexible, spontaneous approach to life, liking to keep options open

MBTI® Profile COLLEGE EDITION

The MBTI assessment not only reports your preferences but also tells how clear you were in selecting each preference over its opposite. This is called the preference clarity index, or pci. The graph below depicts your pci results in each of the four categories.

PCI RESULTS: ENFP

Some of the personality characteristics typically associated with ENFP are summarized below. Do they seem to fit? Many find that their MBTI results describe them quite well. Others find that changing a letter or two helps them arrive at a type that more accurately describes them. Your counselor can give you more insight into the type described and/or help you find a better match if needed.
